

Riley Hix

(214)-226-2356 | hixriley@tamu.edu | www.linkedin.com/in/riley-hix

EDUCATION

Texas A&M University, Mays Business School
Master of Business Administration

College Station, TX
December 2026

Texas A&M University, Zachry Department of Civil Engineering
Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering
GPA: 3.75/4.0
Honors: Magna cum Laude

College Station, TX
May 2019

EXPERIENCE

United States Navy Civil Engineer Corps Officer
Construction Manager

Various Locations
Oceanside, CA
March 2022 – May 2024

- Managed $220M portfolio in projects affecting roads, distribution pipelines, and facilities involving civil, electrical, and mechanical engineering disciplines
- Ensured that work in place was completed in accordance with contractual clauses and within schedule requirements to meet milestones on 13 projects simultaneously
- Built and led construction estimating teams to negotiate $3.2M dollars in savings on contract modifications, ensuring best-value pricing for the Federal Government
- Solved communication and coordination problems across working divisions to include 1000+ requests for information, design changes, master utility outage coordination affecting facilities base wide

Officer - In - Charge/ Liaison Officer 'Supervisor/ Foreign Affairs Representative'

Chinhae, South Korea
June 2021 – March 2022

- Led 24 direct reports for the execution of $240K worth of construction to support United States Fleet Forces, Korea in the revitalization of military housing and security force structures on the overseas installation
- Coordinated four high stakes training operations involving 250 cross functional global teams to repair operational sites, and strategic planning for conflict situations.
- Liaised with Republic of Korea foreign affairs and United States Department of State personnel to facilitate a multinational exercise in Guam involving the movement of 21 Korean naval divers, their equipment, and security clearance to perform dive and explosive disposal operations at Camp Covington, Guam

Port Damage Repair Platoon Commander 'Department Head/ Program Manager'

Port Hueneme, CA
November 2019 – June 2021

- Planned project and led 23 direct reports in the execution of $875K in reparative construction to degraded pier aboard Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton
- Built a training plan and presented to 550 personnel on personal resilience and mental health as the Suicide Prevention Coordinator for battalion
- Secured funding and coordinated inorganic subject matter expert training and three practical application exercises involving 23 personnel to safely prepare for construction operations ensuring zero safety mishaps
- Generated new strategic frameworks and implementation plans to develop port damage repair as a required operational capability of the Seabees and presented them to high-ranking personnel

SKILLS, ACTIVITIES & INTERESTS

Languages: Fluent in English

Technical Skills: Primavera P6, RS Means CostWorks, Microsoft Office Suite

Certifications & Training: Licensed Professional Engineer in Texas, Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Trained

Activities: American Society of Military Engineers, American Society of Civil Engineers

Interests: Texas A&M Football, Fishing, Golf